Copy of letter No.692, dated 12th March 1908, from the District Board President, Mysore District, to the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

With reference to your official Memo No. of the 19th January 1908, regarding the Cattle Show at Mudukadore in the T.Narasipur Taluk, I have the honor to submit herewith copy of a report dated 5th March 1908, by the Amildar of the T.Narasipur Taluk giving a brief and interesting account of the Show of this year. Mr.N.Rama Rao as soon as he took charge of the T.Narasipur Taluk made an attempt to organize this Show at Mudukadore during the Jatra with private help, and I am glad to say that his attempt was attended with success. The amount subscribed for the purpose was Rs.437-8-0 of which Rs.263/- was collected, leaving Rs.174/8/- to be still collected. Of the sum realised, Rs.110/- was given away as prizes to the best exhibits, Rs.49-11-2 was spent on account of "Mantapotsavam of Mallikarjunaswami, and the balance Rs.103-4-10 has been kept in the Government Savings Bank for forming a sort of Reserve Fund in connection with the Cattle Show proposed to be held in future years. The representation for help from the District Funds will be placed before the District Board at its next meeting and the result reported to Government.

I Copy of the Report dated 6th March 1908 from the Amildar of T. Narsipur Taluk on the Mudakadore Cattle Show of 1908. —

On report made that Some leading men in T. Narsipur Taluk desired to organise a cattle Show at Mudakadore by private Subscription, permission was accorded by the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore to hold a cattle Show at this year's Mudakadore fatre, from the 11th to the 14th February, on the lines of the Chunchenakatte Show of 1907.

The deputy Commissioner had the event notified in the Mysore Gazette and the Revenue and Agricultural Gazette, and issued Special orders to all the taluks in the District

District to give it wide publicity. He also graciously Consented to encourage the movement with his presence.

A general meeting of Sympathisers was held at the taluk Katcheery on the 16th January 1908. In Spite of the Shortness of the notice, almost all the important land owners of the taluk attended, Showing clearly the widespread interest evoked by the movement. It was resolved to have funds in reserve to give the Show Some degree of permanency and Rupees 437-8-0 were Subscribed, Of which Rs 166/- were paid on the Spot, and deposited in the Savings Bank. It was next resolved that the Mudakadae Show Should be conducted on the lines of the Chamekanatte Show of 1907, and Subject to the general Control of the Deputy Commissioner. It was further resolved that this being the year of inauguration of the Show, Rs 50/- should be set apart for worship at the Irudukadoe Shrine, to invoke divine blessings and protection.

And

As finally settled, the following prizes were to be awarded.

As at Chunchanakatte, the Deputy Commissioner or some officer appointed by him was to be President and the Amildar an official member.

A Copy of the resolutions was submitted to the Deputy Commissioner and met with his approval.

The Deputy Commissioner was unfortunately prevented by Circumstances beyond his Control from gracing the occasion with his presence, and deputed the Senior Assistant Commissioner of Rajangum Sub-Division to preside over the Committee of judges. —

The hearty Co-operation of all the Amildars in the District had been demi-officially requested, and the undersigned begs to thankfully acknowledge that in most Cases it was willingly rendered.

The Show was declared open

6

On the 11th February 1908, the selected maidan at the foot of the Sacred hill was the site Chosen. It is about 6 acres in extent and would ordinarily Suffice for 1500 heads of cattle Clumps of small trees Scattered about on the land give it just the proportion of Sun Shine and Shadow dear to the heart of the cattle owner, as best Suited for the health and Condition of the cattle. This maidan was divided into lots of about two acres each, and apportioned into Cattle-lines with due provision for approaches. A good Supply of fodder was Secured to be Sold at Cost price to the exhibitors. Cattle began Coming in on the 11th.

A preliminary meeting of the judging Committee was held

On the 12th to discuss the mode of award. It was decided that each member should independently furnish a list of the Cattle, which in his opinion, had a chance of reward. The selection was the first step in the process of award; and the animals thus selected were to be picketted separately from the rest in groups corresponding to the classes to which they belonged. The prize-winners were to be selected ultimately from these groups, by all the judges together.

On the 14th February 1908, the exhibition ground presented quite a gay and animated appearance. There were altogether about 600 heads of gorgeously Caparisoned Cattle. Buyers were not wanting, and animals worth about Rs 40000/- Changed hands. Almost all the animals were very high in class and in excellent condition. The best of

of them were by no means inferior to the best exhibited at the Chem Chenakattu in 1907. Most of them belonged to the Mandya Hallikar breed. Neither the Bettadapur nor the Nagavara Betta breeds were properly represented. There were a few pairs of Baragur Cattle, but they were nowhere in the Competition. There were no Cows worth mentioning and to avoid the absurdity of making an award to a ridiculously ineligible animal the prize of Rs 10/- allotted to the class was split into two prizes of Rs 5/- each, and transferred to class C, bull-Calves, which was splendidly represented.

The following were the prize-winners.

Class A. Bullocks.

I / 20 Rs. Mahantappa of Binakana-halli, T. Narsipur Taluk. Pair of white Hallikar bullocks. 6 teeth.

II / Rs. 15. Mallegowda of Murgur. T. Narsipur Taluk.

9

Pair of grey Halikar bullocks
6 teeth 15

III
Rs 10/- Malavalli Bireegowda of Kandakere. Pair of white Halikar bullocks. 6 teeth.

IV
Rs 7/- Bandanna Hotte Siddegowda, Arsikere Taluk, Pair of black Halikar bullocks full mouth.

The 3rd prize was awarded by the judges to Mr. V. Ramarao, Amildar of T. Narsipur for a pair of Bettadapur bullocks, 6 teeth and 4 teeth, but as he would not accept the money-prize and took only a certificate, the money was given to the next in the order of merit.

Class B. Breeding bulls.

I
Rs 15. Kalkuni Amir Saheb, Malavalli Taluk - Halikar bull. Iron grey. 6 teeth.

II
Rs 10. Chikkamegala Kottal Chinnagowda. Halikar Slate Coloured bull. 4 teeth.

Class C

I. Gare Dasa of T. Narsipur

II. Bulankoor Bolegowda, Mansoya.

III. Daseegowdana koppal. Chikka Kal Gowda T. Narsipur.

IV. Hunugahalli Silda of Kalavalli.

V. Alahalli Chame Gowda. Kalavalli.

VI. Kottagal Madegowda T. Narsipur.

The award was finished on the 14th and the prizes and Certificates in the usual form were distributed the next morning by the Amildar of the T. Narsipur Taluk at the orders of the Sub-Divisional Officer of Nanjangode who had to go away on other business to Nanjangode. It will be remembered that Rs 50/- had been set apart for divine Service. This amount was utilised for a Kantapooram in a pendal raised on the Exhibition ground, to which all the Cattle owners were invited to attend.

The Cattle were taken in procession before the idol. The animals were garlanded and received their prize money in neat little silver purses, with certificates and words of encouragement. The function closed with distribution of prasadam to all the cattle-owners. Considerable enthusiasm prevailed. If only the Deputy Commissioner had not been unfortunately prevented from presiding at the event, and giving an additional value to the prizes by personally distributing them, the Show could have confidently been called a success.

In fact Mudakdore is admirably adapted for a Cattle fair. It has all the natural advantages of Chinchonakatte — plenty of shade and water, and a vast concourse of people. The Show there, is bound to succeed and would certainly stimulate Cattle breeding and trade in the

This year Show was brought to a successful Conclusion by private initiative and Co-operation the result- is no doubt-Gratifying but it would probably be too much to expect that the enthusiasm which started the movement can have strength enough to sustain it or make it per-

have been met, a balance of Rs. 103-4-10 remain to the Credit of the Show in the Savings bank. Of the total total Sum available for the future will therefore be Rs

one prize and no more. The Show cannot become an annual event, unless Government make it so. It is respectfully

Respectfully proposed that Government Sanction might be obtained for an annual Cattle Show at Mudakadore, during the Jatra festival. — Rs 100/- might be allotted for prizes. One half of this amount might be met out of the surplus funds of the Sri Mallikarjuna Swami Temple. The Jatre gives this institution an annual income of Rs 400/- on the average, and as the Cattle Show and the gradual development of Cattle trade there, will — Certainly benifit this income the proposed Contribution would not be unfair. The other half might be met by the District Board. The interest accruing from the Reserve fund Contributed by the T. Narsipur Raiyats might be constituted a Special prize for the best Cow exhibited each year

The prize-winners were to be selected ultimately from these groups, by all the judges together.

On the 14th February 1908, the exhibition ground presented ~~a~~ quite a gay and animated appearance. There were altogether about 600 heads of gorgeously caparisoned cattle. Eyes were not found wanting, and animals worth about ~~Rx.~~ Rs.4,000/- changed hands. Almost all the animals were very high in class and in excellent condition. The best of them were by no means inferior to the best exhibited at Chenchenkatte in 1907. Most of them belonged to the Mandya Kallikar breed. Neither the ~~Amirmahal~~ Bettadapur nor the Hadeevarabetta breeds were properly represented. There were a few pairs of Baragur cattle, but they were nowhere nowhere in the competition. There were no cows worth mentioning, and to avoid the absurdity of making an award to a ridiculously ineligible animal the prize of Rs. 10/- [illegible] the class was split into two prizes of Rs.,

remembered that Rs 50/- had been set apart for divine service. This amount was utilised for a Mantapotsavam in a pandal raised on the exhibition ground, to which all the cattle owners were invited to attend. The cattle were taken in procession before the idol. The winners were garlanded and received their prize money in neat little velvet purses with certificates and works of encouragement. The function closed with distribution of prasadam to all the cattle owners. Considerable enthusiasm prevailed. If only the Deputy Commissioner had not been unfortunately prevented from presiding at the event, and giving an additional value to the prizes by personally distributing them, the show could have confidently been called a success.

In fact Mudukadore is admirably adapted for a Cattle fair. It has all the natural advantages of Chunchenkatte- plenty of shade and water, and a vast concourse of people. A show there, is bound to succeed and would certainly stimulate cattle breeding and trade in the District, This year's show was brought to a successful conclusion by private initiative and co-operation. The result is no doubt gratifying but it would probably be too much to expect that the enthusiasm which started the movement can have strength enough to sustain it or make it permanent Of the amount collected, after all expenses have been met, a balance of Rs 103-[illegible]-10 remain to the credit of the show in the Savings Bank. Of the total amount subscribed Rs/74/8 yet remains to be collected. The total sum available for the future will therefore be Rs 277-12-10 yielding an annual interest of a fraction over Rs 7/-, which might suffice for one prize and no more. The show cannot become an annual event, unless Government make it so. It is respectfully proposed that Government sanction might be obtained for an annual cattle show at Mudukadore, during the Jatra festival. Rs 100/- might be allotted for prizes.

Rs 5/- each, and transferred to class C, bull calves, which was splendidly represented.

The following were the prize-winners.

Class A Bullocks.

I- Rs 20 Mahantappa of Minakanahalli, T. Narsipur Taluk. Pair of white Hallikar bullocks. 6 teeth.

II- Rs 15 Madegowda of Mugur. T. Narsipur Taluk Pair of grey Hallikar bullocks. 6 teeth.

III Rs 10/- Malavalli Biregowda of Kandakere. Pair of white Hallikar bullocks. 6 teeth.

IV Rs 10/- Budanur Motte Siddegowda, Mandya Taluk, Pair of black Hallikar bullocks, full mouth.

The 3rd prize was awarded by the judges to Mr. M. Venu Rao, Amildar of T. Narsipur for a pair of Bettadapur bullocks, 6 teeth and 4 teeth, but as he would not accept the money prize and took only a certificate, the money was given to the next in the Order of Merit.

Class B. Breeding-bulls.

I Rs 15/- Kalkuni Amir Saheb. Malavalli Taluk. Hallikar bull. Iron grey 6 teeth.

II. Rs 10/- Chikkamegala Koppal Chinnagowda. Hallikar slate coloured bull. 4 teeth.

Class C. Bull calves.

I Cane Dasi of T. Narsipur.

II Dutanhosur Polegowda, Mandya.

III Dasegowdana Koppal Chikka Viregowda, T.Narsipur

IV. Hunagahalli Sidda of Malavalli.

V. Alahalli Channe Gowda, Malavalli.

VI. Kottagal Madegowda, T. Narsipur.

The award was finished on the 14th and the prizes and certificates in the usual form were distributed the next morning by the Amildar of the T.Narsipur Taluk on the orders of the Sub Divisional Officer of Nanjangud, who had other business to Nanjangud. It

One half of this amount might be met out of the Muzrai funds of the Sri Mallikarjunaswami Temple. The Jatre gaves this institution an annual income of Rs 400/-, on the average, and as the cattle show and the gradual development of cattle trade there, will certainly benefit this income, the proposed contribution would not be unfair. The other half might be met by the District Board. The interest accruing from the Reserve Fund contributed by the T. Narsipur Raiyats might be constituted a special prize for the best cow exhibited each year. All the papers connected with the show are most respectfully submitted."

Letter No. 10314, dated the 23rd March 1908, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, forwarding for information copies of the reports of the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore and of the Amildar of T.-Narsipur Taluk on the holding of a cattle show at Mudukadore organized on the representation of the people out of private subscriptions.

Letter No. 692, dated 12th March 1908, from the President of the District Board, Mysore, to the Revenue Commissioner.

"With reference to your Official Memo of the 19th January 1908, regarding the cattle show at Mudukadore in the T.-Narsipur Taluk, I have the honor to submit herewith copy of a report dated 5th March 1908, by the Amildar of the T.-Narsipur Taluk giving a brief and interesting account of the show of this year. Mr. N. Rama Rao as soon as he took charge of the T.-Narsipur Taluk made an attempt to organize this show at Mudukadore during the jatra with private help and I am glad to say that his attempt was attended with success. The amount subscribed for the purpose was Rs. 437-8-0, of which Rs. 263 was collected, leaving Rs. 174-8-0 to be still collected. Of the sum realized, Rs. 110 was given away as prizes to the best exhibits, Rs. 49-11-2 was spent on account of "Mantapotsavam" of Mallikarjunaswami, and the balance Rs. 103-4-10 has been kept in the Government Savings Bank for forming a sort of Reserve Fund in connection with the cattle show proposed to be held in future years. The representation for help from the District Funds will be placed before the District Board at its next meeting and the result reported to Government.

Report dated 5th March 1908, from the Amildar of T.-Narsipur taluk.

On report made that some leading men in T.-Narsipur Taluk desired to organize a cattle show at Mudukadore by private subscription, permission was accorded by the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore to hold a cattle show at this year's Mudukadore Jatre, from the 11th to the 14th February 1908 on the lines of the Chunchankatte Show of 1907.

The Deputy Commissioner had the event notified in the Mysore Gazette and the Revenue and Agricultural Gazette; and issued special orders to all the taluks in the district to give it wide publicity. He also graciously consented to encourage the movement with his presence.

A general meeting of sympathisers was held at the Taluk Cutcherry on the 16th January 1908. In spite of the shortness of the notice, almost all the important landowners of the taluk attended, showing clearly the widespread interest evoked by the movement. It was resolved to have funds in reserve to give the show some degree of permanency and Rs. 437-8-0 were subscribed, of which Rs. 166 were paid on the spot, and deposited in the Savings Bank. It was next resolved that the Mudukadore Show should be conducted on the lines of the Chunchankatte Show of 1907, subject to the general control of the Deputy Commissioner. It was further resolved that this being the year of inauguration of the Show, Rs. 50 should be set apart for worship at the Mudukadore Shrine, to invoke divine blessings and protection.

As finally settled the following prizes were to be awarded :—

At Chunchankatte, the Deputy Commissioner or some officer appointed by him was to be President and the Amildar an official member.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

A copy of the resolutions was submitted to the Deputy Commissioner, and met with his approval.

The Deputy Commissioner was unfortunately prevented by circumstances beyond his control from gracing the occasion with his presence, and deputed the Senior Assistant Commissioner of Nanjangud Sub-Division, to preside over the Committee of Judges.

The hearty co-operation of all the Amildars in the district had been demi-officially requested, and the undersigned begs to thankfully acknowledge that in most cases it was willingly rendered.

The show was declared open on the 11th February 1908, an elevated maidan at the foot of the sacred hill was the site chosen. It is about 6 acres in extent and would ordinarily suffice for 1,500 heads of cattle. Clumps of small trees scattered about on the land give it just the proportion of sun-shine and shadow dear to the heart of the cattle owner, as best suited for the health and condition of his cattle. This maidan was divided into lots of about two acres each, and apportioned into cattle lines with due provision for approaches. A good supply of fodder was secured to be sold at cost price to the exhibitors. Cattle began coming in on the 11th.

A preliminary meeting of the judging committee was held on the 12th to discuss the mode of award. It was decided that each member should independently furnish a list of the cattle, which in his opinion, had a chance of reward. The selection was the first step in the process of award; and the animals thus selected were to be picketted separately from the rest in groups corresponding to the classes to which they belonged. The prize winners were to be selected ultimately from these groups by all the judges together.

On the 14th February 1908, the exhibition ground presented quite a gay and animated appearance. There were altogether about 600 heads of gorgeously caparisoned cattle. . Buyers were not wanting, and animals worth about Rs. 4,000 changed hands. Almost all the animals were very high in class and in excellent condition. Neither the Bettadapur nor the Madesvarabetta breeds were properly represented. There were a few pairs of Baragur cattle, but they were no where in the competition. There were no cows worth mentioning, and to avoid the absurdity of making an award to a rediculously ineligible animal the prize of Rs. 10 allotted to the class was split into two prizes of Rs. 5 each, and transferred to class C, bull calves, which was splendidly represented.

Class A. Bullocks.

I Rs. 20 Mahantappa of Binakanahalli, T.-Narsipur Taluk. Pair of white Hallikar bullocks. 6 teeth.

III Rs. 10 Malvalli Biregowda of Kandakere. Pair of white Hallikar bullocks. 6 teeth.

IV Rs. 10 Budanur Hotte Siddegowda, Mandya Taluk. Pair of black Hallikar bullocks. Full mouth.

The 3rd prize was awarded by the judges to Mr. N. Rama Rao, Amildar of T.-Narsipur, for a pair of Bettadapur bullocks, 6 teeth and 4 teeth, but as he would not accept the money prize and took only a certificate, the money was given to the next in the order of merit.

Class C. Bull calves.

Rs. 5 each.
- I Garo Dasi of T.-Narsipur.
- II Butanhosur Bolegowda, Mandya.
- III Dasegaudana Koppal Chikka Viregauda, T.-Narsipur.
- IV Hunagahalli Sidda of Malvalli.
- V Alahalli Chamegauda, Malvalli.
- VI Kottagal Madegauda, T.-Narsipur.

The award was finished on the 14th and the prizes and certificates in the usual form were distributed the next morning by the Amildar of the T.-Narsipur Taluk at the orders of the Sub-Divisional Officer of Nanjangud, who had to go away on other business to Nanjangud.
